

HUMAN SERVICES PROGRAM

At Orleans Technical Institute, you will gain the skills needed to promote positive change in people's lives, from basic counseling skills and case management methods to effective intervention strategies. Earn your Human Services diploma and transfer credits from this program toward a degree at Philadelphia University, Community College of Philadelphia, or University of Phoenix.

CAREERS IN HUMAN SERVICES

Our Human Services program is for those who want to make a difference in people's lives—those with the compassion to assist individuals in need and for workers already in the “helping” field who want to upgrade and diversify their skills.

Through classroom instruction, field trips, and an internship, Orleans students develop the knowledge and experience necessary to work effectively with diverse at-risk populations:

- Individuals with disabilities
- Generational welfare families
- Chronically homeless
- Frail elderly
- Disadvantaged and delinquent youth
- People with addictions
- Domestic violence victims
- Ex-offenders
- HIV/AIDS
- Refugees and immigrants

Human services professionals go on to play important roles in our society and may work in the health care and social assistance industries in a variety of settings, such as social service agencies, hospitals, schools, rehabilitation facilities, youth centers, retirement centers, group homes, or correctional facilities.

Orleans graduates may work as:

- Residential Counselor, Assistant
- Life Skills Worker
- Youth Care Worker, Mentor
- Recreational Aide
- Counselor Aide
- Case Manager Aide
- Intake Worker
- Assessment Worker
- Outreach Worker
- Therapeutic Support Staff Aide
- Housing Subsidy Aide
- Addictions Recovery Assistant

*Applicants must have a high school diploma or equivalent.
